

The Tide

Clare Helen Welsh, Ashling Lindsay (Illustrator)

Grandad doesn't remember things like he used to. But I love him as much as I always have. And I know that he loves me. A story about families, laughter, and how we can help a loved one with dementia live well.

Perfect Shelter

Clare Helen Welsh, Åsa Gilland (Illustrator)

A story about sisters. A story about love. A story about how it feels when someone close to you has cancer. When the author's uncle was diagnosed with cancer, she wrote this text for her children, to help them name and explore the complicated feelings borne of heartbreaking situations.

Some Days

Julie A. Stamm, Chamisa Kellogg (Illustrator)

Nothing can stop Wyatt and Rosie in this heartwarming tale about having a parent with a chronic illness. Even when Wyatt's mom isn't feeling her best, he still thinks she's a superhero!
